Harmony Corps

Promote, Provide,
Prevent

What is Harmony Corps?

Harmony Corps is a program of Harmony Café, which exists to provide vocational skill development for at-risk youth and young adults.

The Harmony Corps will promote positive personal development through the incentive of a work experience at Harmony Café. It will provide participants with professional, educational, and personal development through vocational training, academic workshops, and referral to community resources. The Harmony Corps will help to prevent youth and young adults from continuing on paths of drugs, alcohol, joblessness, homelessness, etc.

Job Description

Harmony Corps participants will:

- help to manage the daily operations of the Harmony Café, including building maintenance and upkeep, building safety, inventory control of retail items and supplies, loss prevention and security, and maintaining health standards.
- provide suggestions for programs and services offered through Harmony Café
- assist with special events ensuring that Harmony Café programming furthers the mission of the Café and Goodwill Industries.
- serve as the inspiration for the continuation of the Harmony Corps program.
