ROW Grants Awarded PV

Positive Voice has been awarded 2 grants by Rainbow Over Wisconsin.

The first Grant of $500 was awarded to help fund the Day of Self Discovery held earlier this year. The theme for DOSD 2005 was collaboration of organizations within our communities. Scott Fearing from Outfront Minnesota gave an excellent series of presentations for those in attendance.

A second $600 grant award to PV was announced during the 2nd Annual “Evening with Rainbow Over Wisconsin,” held Saturday, November 12, at the SC Grand banquet hall and convention center in DePere.

PV had recently requested a $600 matching grant toward the purchase of a multimedia projection system for use in programming at the PV office.

After the award, attendees were encouraged by ROW to contribute toward the $600 PV need to raise to receive the matching grant. Dinner guests contributed just over $400 toward that goal! We extend our thanks to the many hard working ROW members and their generous contributors.

If you would like to make a special donation toward this Matching Grant, please consider sending a special donation for this worthy upgrade to our PV office.

ROW has now distributed over $73,300 in funds to over two dozen organizations for the betterment of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered community in central, eastern and northeastern Wisconsin.

Or, consider making a gift or monetary donation during our Thursday drop in nights at the PV office or at the Holiday Party on December 3rd. ### WI Legislature Takes Up Ban on Civil Unions & Marriage

From Action Wisconsin

Center Advocates Action Alert - Stop the Ban on Civil Unions & Marriage

The chief legislative sponsors of Wisconsin's proposed ban on civil unions and gay marriage have just announced that they are reintroducing the antigay constitutional ban.

Rep. Mark Gundrum (R- New Berlin) and Sen Scott Fitzgerald (R- Juneau) are asking their fellow legislators – including your own Assembly representative and State Senator to sign on as cosponsors. Passing the constitutional amendment a second time in the legislature is the next step to changing the constitution; the final step is a referendum in November 2006.

Please make sure that your own elected representatives don't shame you and your community by signing on to this attempt to put discrimination in the Wisconsin constitution. Take action now by contacting your representatives!

The proposed constitutional amendment banning civil unions and marriage is wrong because:

- It hurts Wisconsin families by permanently denying hundreds of the rights of marriage that families need to protect themselves, such as the right to make emergency medical decisions for a loved one, hospital visitation, sharing health and retirement benefits, even the right to make funeral arrangements.

- Threatens the health insurance of the families of teachers and other government workers who live in communities like Milwaukee, Sun Prairie, Madison and La Crosse that have domestic partner health insurance.

- Is so radical that -- its supporters now admit -- it bans civil unions and comprehensive domestic partnership.

Find out more about the No on the Amendment campaign at www.CenterAdvocates.org or www.actionwisconsin.org/amendment

Election Day Results

From Human Rights Campaign - HRC.

"Fairness advanced forward Tuesday (Nov 8), with voters securing equality in the law, in the statehouse and in city hall," said Human Rights Campaign President Joe Solmonese.

WASHINGTON - Election Day 2005 produced solid and crucial victories for equality with defeat of an anti-gay ballot measure in Maine, the ousting from office of one of the most viciously anti-gay legislators in America and the victory of the first-ever openly gay city council person in Columbus, Ohio.

Many openly gay candidates and officials also won election or re-election across the nation Tuesday. These victories were won despite passage of a discriminatory constitutional amendment in Texas.

"Fairness took a step forward Tuesday, with voters securing equality in the law, in the statehouse and in city hall," said Human Rights Campaign President Joe Solmonese. "Standing shoulder to shoulder with our partners in the states, we mobilized and educated voters and equality triumphed."

* The Maine victory was an historic win. The ballot measure defeated Tuesday would have repealed a non-discrimination bill that passed both houses of the Maine Legislature in March 2005 with strong bipartisan support and was signed into law by Democratic Gov. John Baldacci. This was the third attempt to repeal the measure and the first time voters approved the law. The Human Rights Campaign invested more than $150,000 to defeat the measure, working closely with Maine Won't Discriminate.

* In Virginia, Delegate Richard Black (Loudoun County - 32nd district Republican), one of the most anti-gay legislators in America was defeated Tuesday by David Poisson. Delegate Black has a long tradition of anti-gay votes and proposed legislation, including one that would have required social workers to determine if parents seeking to adopt a child are gay. The Human Rights Campaign donated resources to Equality Virginia to help defeat Black.

* In crucial electoral battleground state Ohio, Mary Jo Hudson was elected as the first openly gay member of the Columbus City Council.

Hudson's victory was particularly gratifying for the Human Rights Campaign as she is a former board member with longtime involvement in the organization.

Also on Tuesday (November 8th), in Texas, voters approved a sweeping constitutional amendment banning not just marriage equality but also civil unions, domestic partnerships and even the most basic arrangements to secure fairness for Texas families.

"The amendment will hurt thousands of men, women and children in Texas, denying them basic rights and responsibilities provided to every Texas family," added Solmonese. "The battle for equality is often two steps forward and one step back and sadly that proved true on Tuesday."

The Human Rights Campaign is the largest national lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender political organization with members throughout the country. It effectively lobbies Congress, provides campaign support and educates the public to ensure that LGBT Americans can be open, honest and safe at home, at work and in the community.

unified group to create a positive atmosphere that allows us to share our viewpoints and feelings, to grow, and to gain a greater sense of fulfillment in our lives.
