Friday, June 26, 2009 – “Why The Fox Valley?”

• Option #1: Paine Art Museum, Bergstrom-Mahler Museum, Lumber Baron Homes: A wonderful tour of Oshkosh and Neenah, WI featuring the homes that illustrate the history of the area. Many of these historical homes are Nationally Registered and tell the story of the “paper barons” that founded the area.

• Option #2: Niagara Escarpment Live! High Cliff Park:

The Niagara Escarpment is exposed from southern Wisconsin north through the Door County, in Upper Michigan, then the Manitoulin Islands of Ontario and down to Niagara Falls. It played a major role in exploration and development.

• Option #3: Walking Tour of Historical Appleton:

The Fox Cities Convention and Visitors Bureau invited you on a special walking tour through Downtown and the Historical Wards of the city of Appleton.

Materials will be available at check-in and all locations are easily within walking distance from the hotel!

Saturday, June 27, 2009 – Round-Robin Tours (all attendees)

Hearthstone, Paper Discovery Center, Weis Earth Science Museum

A tour for all Torch Convention attendees encompassing all of what Appleton has to offer!

Hearthstone is the first home in the world powered by hydro-electric power, the Paper Discovery Center is a celebration of the history of Appleton. Its mission is “To Celebrate All Things Paper: The Wonder and Legacy.” Lastly, the Weis Earth Science Museum is a true destination to learn about “what lies beneath!”
